Celia Karas advised that the new bumper stickers were well received in Western Australia.

Kevin Thomas advised that the reimbursement for the Bumper Stickers was still outstanding. Christine Lucas queried if there was a claim form that needed to be completed and, if not, how were claims approved and supposed to be reimbursed.

We currently have no claim form and generally claims were for recognised expenses so would be accepted.

Resolution

Celia Karas moved Steve Longwood seconded that the Kevin Thomas be reimbursed $381.00 for the bumper stickers.

Carried

Christine Lucas has recently had problems with the Square Dance website. Kevin Thomas suggested she use the control F5 button to clear the cache. He suggested this may work.

After discussion it was decided that at this stage we wouldn't order any more bumper stickers, but would wait for feedback from the various States after having received a number of the new ones.

Jason Nicholson to be invited to the next ZOOM meeting for his input in promotions.

It is encouraging that the NSDSA executive committee are now having more regular meetings

The USA have Square Dance Month in March each year. It may be a good idea to recommence this in Australia at a National level.

Suggestion was made that we invite a delegate from each State to attend a ZOOM meeting to discuss how best to promote our movement both Nationally and State wide.

Meeting closed 10.49hrs. Next ZOOM meeting Sunday 22nd September 2019 1000hrs WST & Noon EST.
